The Forever Smiles Holiday

MOVIE EVENT

Wow! Dr. Razdolsky and the Forever Smiles team had such a wonderful time at this year's Holiday movie event. With more than 500 patients, parents and friends in attendance to see the latest addition to the wizarding world of Harry Potter, this was one of our most successful events so far. Our sweatshirt give-away this year featured a "Cubs" blue color in honor of our favorite home team's awesome win this year. We also had mouth-watering popcorn, treats, and most importantly, lots of Forever Smiles!

Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them is truly magical. We were particularly taken with how the main character, Newt Scamander had so much compassion and respect for the

Anna's Books Featured in Industry Publication

We are so proud of the incredible response received from patients, peers and industry professionals in regard to Anna Razdolsky's books released earlier this year. She has shared and sold many copies of The Smile Team and The Smiling Brightly through her community outreach programs that raise awareness for early detection and treatment for a healthy smile. A cause that is dear to her, and the reason for which she became an author.

Anna has also received incredible visibility through the launch of her Forever Smiles Publishing website, as well as by becoming an Amazon and Barnes & Noble book seller.

In addition, the Journal of Clinical Orthodontic even featured write-ups of both her books in their October issue. How cool is that!?!

PRODUCT NEWS

Children's Book

The Smiling Brightly tells the story of a child who is referred to an orthodontist when his adult teeth start coming in. The family learns how early consultation with a specialist can help avoid bigger problems in the future. Presented in terms children can understand, the book provides a wealth of information on early orthodontic monitoring and treatment, according to the publisher.

Children's Book

The Smile Team is a metaphor for improving her smile, one that is quick and easy and another that involves a team of specialists—an approach that ensures lasting results, according to the publisher. Unfortunately, the second option won't be finished in time for her won't party. Which will she choose?

It reminds us how each of you is so special to our Forever Smiles family, and why we place such importance in ensuring your treatment and results bring you confidence in your smile. It's also why we love to have events like this one. So we can show all your family and friends how much you mean to all of us at Forever Smiles.

We are so pleased to have been able to share this movie experience as our gift to you this Holiday Season!
